

Yo You Solve It Grading Rubric

Group Members: _____

	F = 0 points	D = 4 points	C = 6 points	B = 8 points	A = 10 points
Research	No sources are presented. Research does not relate	Only 1 source of research is presented. Research is somewhat meaningful.	2 sources of research is presented. Research is not meaningful or relevant.	Only 2 sources of research are presented. Research is meaningful and relevant.	At least 3 sources are presented. Research is meaningful and relevant
Documentation	Research is not documented throughout the presentation.	Research is only reference and documented once throughout the presentation.	Research is rarely reference and documented throughout the presentation	Research is referenced & documented sporadically throughout the presentation	Research is referenced & documented often throughout the presentation
Proposal	No proposal was submitted by the group.	Proposal was submitted but explanation was unclear	Proposal was short and left many questions as to the groups solution.	Proposal was submitted but had some missing elements.	Proposal was submitted and a clear explanation was given as to the groups plan and solution.
Plan to Solve	No plan is presented.	Plan is presented ineffectively. Audience has many questions. Implementation was not carried through	Plan is presented in a way that the audience with numerous questions. Implementation has many flaws	The groups plan is presented in a way that leaves the audience with some questions. Implementation has flaws.	The groups plan is presented in a clear, concise, and creative way. The plan was implemented effectively.
Data	No data is presented.	Data is presented in a confusing way. Datta is irrelevant.	Data is presented in a	Data is presented in a way that is slightly confusing. Not completely relevant.	Data is presented in a way that is easy to understand, meaningful and relevant.
Literature Connections	No literature connections are made throughout the presentation.	Presentation makes 1 connection to the literature in the unit and reading selections	Presentation makes few connections to the literature in the unit and reading selections	Presentation makes some connections to the literature in the unit and reading selections.	Presentation makes numerous connections to the literature in the unit and the reading selections.
Textual Evidence	No textual evidence is presented.	Textual evidence is rarely given to support connections.	Some textual evidence is given to support connections	Ample textual evidence is given to support but not for every connection	Textual evidence is given to support every short story connection made throughout the presentation.
Presentation Quality	No presentation	Presentation leaves the audience with many questions and concerns. Only one group member participates in giving the presentation.	Presentation is fair. Implementation is fair. Only one group member gives the presentation	Presentation is somewhat interesting and well planned. Implemented somewhat effectively. Some group members participate.	Presentation is interesting, entertaining, well planned and implemented in an effective way. All group members participate.
Teamwork	Group members do not work together as a team.	Group members encounter many bumps in the process of working together and do not communicate.	Group members encounter problems and do not communicate effectively.	Group shows teamwork but encounters some problems as they work together.	Group shows teamwork throughout the process of solving the problem and throughout the presentation.
Creativity &amp; Initiative	Presentation and solution do not show creativity and initiative.	Presentation is not very creative and group members had to be pushed to take initiative.	Presentation is slightly creative. Group members rarely took initiative to solve the problem together.	Presentation is creative but group members only sometimes took initiative throughout the process. Somewhat dependent.	Presentation shows the groups creativity and initiative in solving their problem. All group members work together in a clearly helpful way.